

Love Journey

| Playlist Synopsis |

On the evening of the Full Moon in Scorpio on May 8, 2020, the playlist "Erykah + Jill :: Love Journey," curated by yours truly, came to me in a very clear vision. How appropriate, the timing: Scorpio energy, the heightened ebb and flow of intense emotions, & the Full Moon, the opportunity to release old things that no longer serve us & allow newness.

Inspired by the Erykah Badu Verzuz Jill Scott battle/fellowship (taking place on May 9, 2020), this playlist is scripted/designed as the spectrum of someone's love journey: from being secure in one's self; to meeting someone they vibe with; to exploring the depths of a loving, sexually intense & affectionate, committed relationship; to transitioning the nature of the relationship; to reconnecting with one's self as a new foundation for healthy relationship dynamics, starting within.

This story is told in 4 chapters and each one is segued by an Interlude (song titles listed below). DO NOT SHUFFLE PLAYLIST! Listen in order. Enjoy the story... -Marsha Wilson
